NEVADA LEGISLATURE.

Twenty-second Session—Fifth Day.
 Senate.

Senate convened at the usual hour.
 Lieutenant Governor Allen presiding.

Roll called. Absent, Senators Lord and Williams on leave.

Prayer by the Chaplain.

Journal read and amended as to a minor technicality.

Committee on enrollment report enrollment of Senate Bill No. 2 for copying of Senate Journal.

Judiciary Committee report favorably on Senate Bill No. 3.

Wilson, Special Committee on rooms reports assignment of same to the various committees.

Message from the Governor announcing his approval of Senate Bill No. 1, (creating a legislative fund) read and filed.

Assembly Bill No. 1 (Copying Assembly Journal) received and ordered returned to Assembly for correction of enacting clause.

Senate Resolution No. 4, by Hardin—Providing for printing 300 copies of all bills introduced instead of 150, read and adopted.

Senate Bill No. 3, on third reading, was ordered placed at bottom of file.

Governor's biennial Message, printed in pamphlet form, was taken up and referred to the regular Standing Committee for reference when considering bills on subjects treated in said message.

Senator Thorn from Esmeralda announced his dissatisfaction with the report of the Committee on Mileage, claiming that that he should be allowed as much mileage as Senator Oddie. After considerable time had been consumed in endeavoring to ascertain from the Senator the exact amount he considered justly due him, reference was had to the report of the Committee which gave Senator Thorn 482 miles and Senator Oddie but 424 miles. This seemed to relieve the Senator from Esmeralda to some extent and the discussion ended by Senator Wilson moving to adjourn. Adjourned until 11 a. m. next Monday.

Assembly.

Convened at 11 a. m. Speaker Platt in the chair. Quorum present. Leave of absence granted to Hastings of Washoe.

Prayer by Chaplain.

Resolution No. 2—by Gifford that an assistant committee clerk, be appointed and that Miss Edith G. Ray be named as such assistant. Resolution withdrawn to be amended so as to include compensation for such work.

Dodge gave notice of a bill to provide a method for adopting and caring for homeless and dependent orphans of the State.

Williams gave notice of a bill authorizing our representatives in Congress to ask for appropriation for sinking artesian wells throughout the State.

McCann of Nye gave notice of bill to appoint a State veterinary surgeon and regulate veterinary matters.

Cole of Nye gave notice of a bill to segregate the officers of Sheriff and Assessor of Nye county.

Adjourned until 11 a. m. next Monday.
